

As more cases of the COVID-19 (Coronavirus) crop up across the country, MABE is committed to helping school boards prepare their district with the most up-to-date information. While there are currently no confirmed cases in Maryland, the CDC recommends school leaders have appropriate plans in place.

To help guide your boards in the right direction, we have compiled the following list of resources:

Maryland Department of Health Coronavirus FAQ

Maryland Department of Health Current Coronavirus numbers

Interim Guidance for Administrators of US Childcare Programs and K-12 Schools

Edweek: Schools Should Prepare for Coronavirus Outbreaks

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

NSBA COVID-19 Preparedness Guide

NSBA - Responding to the Coronavirus

NSBA's Center for Safe Schools

Department of Education

World Health Organization